

MONEY FOR AN ACTRESS

LEFT BY A MAN WHO WEDDED AND ROBBERED HER.

A Romance That Began in Chicago—
Married on Short Notice.

NEW YORK, August 17.—Pauline Bradshaw, a beautiful actress, was married in Chicago four years ago to Count Vladimir Rostowski, an alleged Russian nobleman, after a courtship of two hours.

"I am negotiating for the establishment of a great ship yard here," said the Count to Pauline the morning after the marriage. "I shall have to see the Mayor. You must not be impatient if I chance to remain away a trifle long." When Pauline opened the casket where she usually kept her diamonds the contents were gone. So were several hundred dollars in cash which the same box had contained. Count Vladimir Rostowski never returned—neither did the valuables.

Several weeks ago Pauline came to New York, and, while waiting for something to turn up, she received a letter which had come from Russia by way of Chicago, New Orleans, San Francisco, Omaha and Philadelphia. It had gone the round of all the places at which Pauline had lived and had taken five months to do so. The letter was from a Russian notary, who begged to inform Miss Pauline Bradshaw that there was a fortune of 50,000 rubles waiting for her in St. Petersburg. A man named Paul Sadowski had, according to the notary, bequeathed her that amount.

Sadowski had amassed a great fortune in South Africa and had returned last year to his native country. For awhile he led a life of mad gayety, making it difficult for even the richest of the wildcap young noblemen who took him into their revels to keep pace with him. Last January all this changed. Sadowski became retiring, and, in a short while, began frequenting the churches. In March he fell sick and three days later was dead. Among his effects was a codicil to his will bequeathing 50,000 rubles to Miss Pauline Bradshaw of Chicago in consideration of a great wrong he had once done her, and for which he begged her forgiveness.

British Columbia Minerals.

TORONTO, August 17.—Official returns from British Columbia show that in 1894 the aggregate value of precious metals mined in the province was $1,000,000. Last year the value was $5,038,000, and this year the output will be greater, judging from the three months ending July 25th, when the estimated value of gold smelted and shipped was $1,170,000.

Pacing Record Lowered.

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 21.—The stallion Joe Patchen lowered the world's stallion pacing record, held by John R. Gentry, at Rigby by a quarter of a second in a fresh wind, making the mile in 2:03. His quarters were: 30 1/4—29 1/4—30 1/4—32 1/4.

Seattle is fast becoming a great city. One thing which makes it famous is Seattle beer, which you find at the Criterion. A good thing always makes its mark. This is one of the best things on earth.

The Criterion Saloon is a pleasant place to go to and its greatest attraction is the pure, cold Seattle beer on draught there. It makes one's mustache curly and puts new life into the failing consumptive.
